JOHN P. MORTON & CO.,
INCORPORATED.
LOUISVILLE, KENTUCKY.

To the Hon. H.A.W. Skeen, Judge of the Circuit Court of Lee County:

Humbly complaining, your orator W.T. Reilley sheweth unto the court, that on the day of 189 he recovered before J.S. Garrison, a justice of the county of Lee, a judgment for the sum of $12.50, with interest from the day of 189 and $ costs, an abstract of said judgment, duly attested is filed herewith marked exhibit "A", and prayed to be read as a part of this bill; that no part of said judgment has ever been paid, that the said judgment was duly docketed on the day of 189 in the clerks office of the county court of Lee county; a transcript whereof, is herewith filed, marked exhibit "B";

That your orator is not apprised of the fact if there be any other judgments against the said E.S. Stapleton which are liens against the lands of the said E.S. Stapleton:

That your orator recovered another judgment against the said E.S. Stapleton for the sum of $8.00 with interest from the day of 189 and $1.00 costs before W.R. Berry, a Justice of the said county on the day of 1899;

That your orator, knowing that neither of his said judgments against the said E.S. Stapleton, exclusive of interest and costs, amounted to more than $20.00, had notice served on the said E.S. Stapleton, more than sixty days before the institution of this suit, to the effect that if he the said E.S. Stapleton did not pay your orator his two said judgments, your orator would institute suit to enforce the lien of his said judgments, a copy of which notice is filed herewith marked exhibit "C", and prayed to be read as a part of this bill; that the said E.S. Stapleton after he had been so noticed, paid the judgment for $6.00 but had made no effort to pay the judgment first above named:

The said E.S. Stapleton is seized and possessed in his own right of a certain tract of land lying in the Packet country of said county, and more fully described in a deed, made by vs

E. S. Slaptelon
} In Chancery.

This cause came on this the 16 day of November 1899 to be finally heard upon the papers read, and was argued by counsel. On consideration whereof, it appearing to the court that the said defendant, since the institution of this suit, has paid the principal of the two judments and costs thereon described in the plaintiff's bill of complaint and the exhibits filed therewith, it is ordered, adjudged and decreed that the said plaintiff recover judgment against the said defendant for his costs in this suit expended, including an attorney's fee of $5.00, and the clerk of this court is ordered to issue execution against the goods and chattels of the said defendant for the amount of said judgment for costs. And this cause is stricken from the docket.
